GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATE OF RAJASTHAN

Appointments Department.

NOTIFICATION.

Jaipur, December 17, 1949.

No. F.10 (13)-Appts. (c)/49.—In pursuance of sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Rajasthan Public Service Commission Ordinance, 1949, His Highness the Raj Pramukh is pleased to make the following regulations, namely :—

CHAPTER I—PRELIMINARY.

1. These Regulations may be called the United State of Rajasthan Public Service Commission (Conditions of Service) Regulations.

2. In these Regulations, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) 'Commission' means the Rajasthan Public Service Commission.

- (b) 'Chairman' means the Member of the Commission who is appointed Chairman.
- (c) 'Member' means Member of the Commission and includes the Chairman thereof.
- (d) 'Ordinance' means the Rajasthan Public Service Commission Ordinance, 1949.

CHAPTER II—COMMISSION.

PART I—Composition and pay and tenure.

3. The Commission shall consist of a Chairman and such number of other Members, not exceeding four, as may be determined by the Raj Pramukh, from time to time.
4. The Chairman and Members shall hold office for a term of five years :

Provided that—

- (a) When making appointment, the Raj Pramukh may fix a shorter period of tenure.
- (b) A Member may, in writing addressed to the Raj Pramukh, resign his office.
- (c) The Raj Pramukh may terminate the appointment of any Member at any time without notice, if he is satisfied that the Member is for any reason unable or unfit to continue to perform the duties of his office. No person shall have a right to demand a statement of these reasons.

5. (1) There shall be paid to the Chairman and each of the Members such salaries and allowances as may be fixed by the Raj Pramukh from time to time. The Raj Pramukh may also in the case of each Member fix special conditions of service other than and different from those set out in these regulations.

(2) Nothing in these regulations or any other regulations or rules for the time being in force regarding pension of employees shall prevent a Chairman or any other Member who at the time of his appointment as such is a retired Government servant, from drawing his pension from the Government in addition to his salary and allowances fixed under these regulations.

6. A Member who at the date of his appointment was in the service of the Government of the United State of Rajasthan may be granted leave under the rules applicable to him and his service as Member shall count for such leave.

7. (1) A Member who at the date of his appointment as such was not in the service of the Government may be granted leave as follows :—

- (a) Leave on leave salary equivalent to full pay up to one-eleventh of the period spent on duty by him, subject to a maximum of four months at any one time.
- (b) Leave on medical certificate on leave salary equivalent to half pay, subject to a maximum of three months at any one time.
- (c) Extraordinary leave without allowances subject to a maximum of three months at any one time.

Explanation I.—All, or any two, of these kinds of leave may be granted in combination at one time.

Explanation II.—(1) A Member who at the date of his appointment had retired from the service of the Government of the United State of Rajasthan shall, for the purpose of this regulation, be treated as a Member not in the service of the Government.

(2) Leave at the credit of a Member shall lapse on the date on which he shall vacate office under Regulation 4 :

Provided that if in sufficient time before that date, he has—

- (i) formerly applied for leave and been refused it, or
- (ii) ascertained in writing, from the sanctioning authority that leave, if applied for, would not be granted, in either case the ground for refusal being the requirements of the Public Service, then he may be granted, from the date immediately following that of the vacation of office, the amount of leave so refused subject to a maximum of four months.

8. An officiating appointment may be made by the Raj Pramukh in the place of any Member absent on leave or on special duty or on the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of the Member, until some person has been permanently appointed to the office and has entered upon the discharge of the duties thereof.

PART III—Pension and Provident Fund.

9. No pension shall attach to the office of a Member as such but in the case of a Member who at the date of his appointment as such was in the service of the Government, service as Member shall count for pension under the rules applicable to the service to which such Member belongs.

10. General Provident Fund rules shall not apply to the Chairman and Members of the Commission but a Member who, at the date of his appointment was in the service of Government and prior to that date had been admitted to the benefits of any Provident Fund maintained by Government shall be eligible after appointment on the Commission to continue to subscribe to the said Fund upon the same terms and conditions and subject to the same rules as previously :

Provided that on attaining the age of superannuation, the amount standing to the credit of such Member in the said Fund of the balance thereof after such reductions have been made as are authorised under the rules applicable to him shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the said rules, become payable to him and shall be paid in the manner provided in any law relating to Provident Funds for the time being in force.

PART IV—Travelling Allowance.

11. A Member is entitled when travelling on duty—

- (a) when travelling by Railway, to a first class fare and to fares (if actually paid) for three servants at lowest class rates ;
- (b) when travelling by road, to a mileage allowance at the rate of -/S/- per mile ;
- (c) when travelling by air, to a mileage allowance equal to one and one fourth of the standard air fare for the journey ; and
- (d) to a daily allowance at the rate of Rs. 12/- per diem for each day on which he is absent on duty from his headquarters.

CHAPTER III—STAFF

PART I—Composition.

12. The Staff of the Commission shall include a Secretary and such number of gazetted and non-gazetted ministerial officials and inferior servants as the Raj Pramukh may from time to time determine.

PART II—Conditions of Service.

13. The Secretary and the gazetted officials of the Commission shall be appointed by the Commission with the approval of the Raj Pramukh. Unless a shorter term is fixed by the Raj Pramukh the tenure of the office of the Secretary shall be five years, provided that the Commission, may, with the approval of the Raj Pramukh, extend the tenure of the Secretary by any period not exceeding five years. The Secretary shall, if he is a Member of the Rajasthan

State Service, receive pay according to the time scale to which he belongs. If the Secretary is not a Member of the State Service he shall receive such pay and allowance as the Raj Pramukh may determine.

14. In respect of all other matters, the conditions of service of the Secretary shall be such as are applicable to a Member of a Class I State Service, except that when he is not a Member of a State Service the authority who may impose any of the penalties prescribed by the Civil Service Rules shall be the Chairman and that the appellate authority shall be the Raj Pramukh.

Ministerial Establishment.

15. (1) Appointments to the Ministerial non-gazetted posts shall be made by the Secretary to the Commission subject to the approval of the Chairman.

(2) The Ministerial establishment shall be subject to the same conditions of service as the personnel of corresponding grades in the Secretariat of the Rajasthan Government who were recruited at the same time, save that the authority who may impose any of the penalties prescribed in the Rajasthan Government Civil Service Rules shall be the Secretary and the appellate authority shall be the Chairman.

Inferior Servants.

16. The inferior servants shall be appointed by the Secretary and their pay, allowances and conditions of service shall be the same as those of corresponding grades in the Secretariat of the Rajasthan Government, save that the authority who may impose any of the penalties prescribed in the Rajasthan Government Civil Service Rules shall be the Secretary and the appellate authority shall be the Chairman.

By Order,

K. RADHAKRISHNAN,
Chief Secretary to the Government of the United State of Rajasthan.
