Order

Heard.

This appeal is filed by the appellants against the order dated 08.01.2021 in S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.11818/2020 declining interference with the correctness of model answer.

Learned counsel for the appellants would submit that the decision taken by the body of experts as constituted by the respondent, does not satisfy the requirement of law. He would submit that the appellants had submitted objection relying upon various authentic text books and writings of the author and even the government publications which also supported the case of appellants as against which the experts have given a different opinion.

Taking into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Vikesh Kumar Gupta & Anr. Vs. State of Rajasthan & Ors. and other decisions namely Ran Vijay Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors. etc., we are of the view that once the body of experts constituted by respondents has examined the matter, no scope is left for the Court to interfere with the correctness of the model answer.

Therefore, this special appeal writ is dismissed.
